

STADIUM REGULATIONS

1. The Management reserves the right of admission to Sixways.
2. Entry is by ticket only and the Management reserves the right to refuse admission, or to eject from Sixways, any person who refuses to comply with these regulations.
3. Persons entering Sixways are admitted only subject to these rules. Entry shall be deemed to constitute unqualified acceptance of all these rules.
4. Any person attempting to gain admission or being found within areas of Sixways designated for paying spectators without the appropriate authorisation/ticket may be ejected from Sixways.
5. Dogs (with the exception of assistance dogs) or live animals are NOT permitted in Sixways unless by prior arrangement with management.
6. Persons issued with a ticket for a specific seat must occupy that seat unless instructed otherwise by a steward or other authorised agent of Sixways. Standing in seated areas whilst play is in progress is strictly forbidden.
7. Play cannot be guaranteed to take place on any particular day or at any particular time and the Management reserves the right to change advertised fixtures without notice or liability.
8. In the event of a match being postponed or abandoned, any refund of the admission charge will be at the sole discretion of the Management. This is subject to a time limitation, details of which may be obtained from the Ticket Office. Persons entering Sixways are advised to retain their ticket stub, as this may be required to be produced at a later time.
9. The obstruction of gangways, access ways, exits and entrances, stairways and like places is strictly forbidden as is the climbing of floodlight pylons, stands or any other structure within Sixways.
10. Behaviour likely to cause confusion or annoyance to any other person is not permitted in any part of Sixways.
11. Fireworks, flares, smoke canisters, knives, poles and/or any other article which might be used or constructed as weapons and/or compromise public safety are not permitted within Sixways. Bottles, glasses and cans are not to be removed from bar areas and taken into spectator areas or on to the playing areas. Stewards or Police Officers may stop and search any person believed to be contravening this regulation.
12. Flags more than 100cm in size at their widest or longest section and flagpoles greater than 1m in length may not be allowed, unless authorised by Management. Flags may be confiscated for the duration of the event and returned on exit from the ground. Flags must not display any messages of an offensive or political nature.
13. The following are strictly forbidden:
  - a) The throwing of any object that could be deemed to constitute a danger to other persons.
  - b) Using words that are, or behaving in a manner that is, threatening, abusive, insulting, foul, improper, offensive, violent, indecent, or provocative. This shall include, for the avoidance of doubt, engaging in chanting or other non-verbal actions or gestures concerning sporting or other tragedies (whether done at a Match, in-person or remotely, via any electronic communication, social media or otherwise). Any individual found to have engaged in such activity may be subject to a ban from all matches and other events.

- c) Unauthorised entry onto the field of play except in an emergency as directed by the stewards.
14. Any person found removing, damaging or defacing Sixways property will be prosecuted.
  15. Persons failing to comply with instructions from a steward, police officer or other authorised agent of Sixways may be ejected from Sixways.
  16. The Management reserves the right for its stewards, agents and police to remove from the ground any person who does not comply with all these rules and regulations, or whose presence within Sixways, is, or could reasonably be construed as constituting a source of danger, nuisance or annoyance to any other person.
  17. The liability of Sixways for either loss or damage to vehicles and their contents left in car parks or for death or injury to any person using or entering Sixways property is excluded to the extent permitted by statute.
  18. Only persons authorised in writing by the Management are permitted to film or take photographs for commercial gain, distribute without charge or offer for sale any article, raffle ticket or other item whatsoever within Sixways grounds and buildings.
  19. Only a person specifically authorised is permitted within the Ground to offer for sale or distribute without charge any item or article whatsoever. No charitable or other collection within Sixways shall be undertaken save with the specific authorisation of the Management.
  20. Persons are reminded that the management accept no responsibility for any property left anywhere on the premises and such property is left at the owner's risk.
  21. In order to comply with the Sporting Events (Control of Alcohol etc.) Act 1985, admission to Sixways will be denied to ticket holders carrying alcohol or any article, or part of an article, capable of causing injury to a person struck by it, being a bottle, can or other portable container which is for holding any drink, and is of a kind which, when empty, is normally discarded or returned to, or left to be recovered by, the supplier. Where admission is refused in such circumstances, no money will be refunded.
  22. No food may be brought into Sixways for consumption on the premises without prior written consent. If such consent is given a charge will be levied based on the estimated loss of revenue to Sixways. The setting up of barbecues and picnic equipment within Sixways is strictly forbidden. Cool boxes and picnic hampers are also prohibited.
  23. Smoking is strictly forbidden within Sixways, this includes the use of e-cigarettes. Any persons contravening this legal requirement will face expulsion from the ground. Anyone leaving the ground to smoke will be subject to a security check on their return.
  24. Sixways reserves the right for a Sixways Director or Event Day Safety Officer as its agent and without prior notice to revoke or vary any of the Rules with immediate effect if this is considered necessary on public safety grounds. Any such revocation or variation of the Rules will be displayed as soon as practicable at all WRFU offices, Sixways and car parks and, if appropriate, other entrances.
  25. Sixways' agents shall be entitled to refuse admission or re-admission to, or to eject from Sixways, any person who does not comply with these Rules.
